HALion Macro Page Home

In this section of the documentation, you find additional information about Macro Page editing and a reference to all objects like resources, controls, and templates used on HALion macro pages.

To learn more about how to build macro pages and templates and how to use the Macro Page Editor please refer to the Steinberg.help documentation. To find examples for the usage of templates, read the section Exploring Templates .